THE ELECTION IN BOURBON.

Tuesday was an ideal election day, the weather being all that could be desired. The election was a very quiet one in this county and little interest taken.

Below will be found the result of the vote in mes Bros, to same 74 1,400 lb. cattle, 54 of 1,400-lb. cattle to Washington City.

These cattle go to parties who supply the White House tables with beef.

Clintock, at $60; 5 from W. T. Jones,

Bacon at $1,500, as was also Scarlet Wilkes at $475.

—Reports from the wheat crop are to the effect that it is doing unusually well at this season of the year. Fly has appeared in some localities but not sufficiently to do damage. An unusually large acreage was planted.

fall, and the old cry of "farming don't pay" is no longer heard in the land.

—Near Winchester, Tuesday night, the tobacco barn of Charles Swift, Sr., containing fifteen acres of tobacco, was set on fire and destroyed. The loss is about $3,000 with $1,000 insurance.
Mr. Swift has incurred the enmity of a class of day laborers by installing labor saving machinery on his farm, and to this element is attributed the responsibility for the fire rests.

—A dispatch from Owingsville says:
The following sales of real estate seem to indicate that prices are holding up in to Robert Clark for $20,000, or $100 an acre; Clark sold his ninety-four-acre
